Official Statement from the City of Branson

(BRANSON, MO, July 7, 2025) On the afternoon of Friday, July 4, 2025, Mayor Larry Milton experienced a medical event at his personal residence. He was promptly transported to a medical facility in Springfield, where he underwent successful back surgery.

Mayor Milton is fully cognizant, is in good spirits, and is maintaining a positive outlook. He will be undergoing physical therapy for the next several weeks as part of his recovery efforts, which will impact his attendance at upcoming board meetings.

Alderman Clay Cooper serves as the Mayor Pro-Tem, and will preside over formal city meetings in the interim.

The City of Branson will provide updates as appropriate.
